Ana Vidovic: Guitar Virtuoso

Release Date: August 15, 2006

It is difficult to know where to begin when discussing the enormous talents of Ana Vidovic. Her dynamic range, beauty of sound, precision of articulation and virtuosity are such that listening becomes more of an absolute musical experience.

Stephen Griesgraber Guitar Review

Mel Bay Publications and Mel Bay Records are pleased to announce the release of Ana Vidovic: Guitar Virtuoso. Recorded at the Renaissance Center for the Arts in Tampa, Florida on May 20, 2005, Guitar Virtuoso is the first DVD from this amazingly gifted classical guitarist.

A true musical prodigy, Ana took up the guitar at the age of five and by thirteen was the youngest student in the history of the Musical Academy of Zagreb in her native Croatia. Ten years later, she has released five highly acclaimed CDs while winning an impressive roster of international awards, including top prizes at the Albert Augustine International Competition in England, the Fernando Sor Competition in Italy, and the Francisco Tarrega Competition in Spain. Ana tours widely, to the delight of audiences throughout the world, while continuing to hone her skills at the Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore under the direction of renowned guitarist Manuel Barrueco.
